

PRODUCT PRICE INDEX SECOND QUARTER 2008

In the second quarter 2008, Producer Price Index reached 111.5 percent (Year 2005 = 100), signing an increase by 1.3 percent compared with previous quarter. Annual change of this index is 7.4 percent.

Index in “Mining and quarrying” failed 0.1 percent. Here we can mention decrease prices of products in “Mining and quarrying, except of energy producing materials” activity by 0.7 percent.

Producer price index in “Manufacturing” sector rise by 1.6 percent. Within this sector we can mention the increase price of “Manufacture of food and tobacco” activity with 0.9 percent, “Manufacture of textile and textile products” activity with 3.0 percent, “Manufacture of coke, refined petroleum products” activity with 6.7 percent.

Producer price Index for domestic production reached 109.9 percent signing an increase price by 1.5 percent compared with previous quarter. Here we can mention the increase price of textile production by 2.6 percent, food production by 2.8 percent, production of f basic metals and fabricated metal products by 6.6 percent.

Export index price (year 2005 = 100) reached 112.9 percent signing a decrease price by 0.3 percent compared with previous quarter.

Tables

- PRODUCER PRICE INDEX BY ECONOMIC ACTIVITY

- PERCENT CHANGES OF PRODUCER PRICE INDEX

- PRODUCER PRICE INDEX FOR DOMESTIC SUPPLY

- EXPORT PRICE INDEX

