Valuation Methods: Company valuations are based on the following methods: multiple-based (P/E, P/B, EV/EBITDA), historical valuation approaches, peer comparisons, discount models (DCF, DDM) or asset-based evaluation methods.

Valuation models are dependent on macroeconomic factors, including interest rates, foreign exchange rates, prices of raw materials, economy indicators. The valuation is based on expectations that sharply might change, depending on developments specific to individual industries and countries. Recommendations and target prices derived from the models might therefore change accordingly. The application of models depends on forecasts of a range of economic variables, thus there is a range of reasonable variations within models. Any valuation is dependent upon inputs that are based on the subjective opinion of the author carrying out this valuation.

Recommendations: Author(s) recommendations are based on the specific factors for the company, sector, country and global developments, as compared to market indices. Recommendations and opinions reflect KD Securities EAD expectations over 12-month period following publication from the perspective of long-term investment clients only. KD Securities EAD has the right to give different or contrary recommendations and opinions for different timescales or to other type of investment clients. Except as otherwise clearly expressed, expected performance over next 12 months vary for different recommendations for Bulgarian stocks as follows:

Outperform More than 5% higher as compared to SOFIX and BG40 performance

Market Perform Market performance, +/-5% as compared to SOFIX and BG40

Underperform More than 5% lower as compared to SOFIX and BG40 performance

Substantial Changes in Recommendations: Unless otherwise clearly expressed, no substantial changes have been made to prior recommendation related to analyzed financial instruments.

Frequency of Recommendations: No schedule of recommendations is available. The frequency of recommendations depends on specific factors to individual companies and the opinion of the analyst(s) for the necessity of minor or major changes. KD Securities EAD is under no obligation to update or keep current the information contained herein.
